

Featuring the Best in West Valley Wining and Dining

By Michelle Talsma Everson

Vogue Bistro and Bar

Innovative American Cuisine with a French Touch

If you're looking for a West Valley restaurant with a unique menu and extensive wine list, look no further than Vogue Bistro and Bar, located in Surprise. The independently-owned location features a one-of-a-kind offering of contemporary American cuisine prepared exclusively by Chef Aurore de Beauduy applying French cooking techniques and inspiration.

Roman Yasinsky, the restaurant's general manager, owner and husband to Chef Aurore, says that the restaurant uses locally grown organic produce and fresh ingredients in all of its meals. In addition, the bar boasts an extensive list of regional wines, designer cocktails and other exclusive drinks. "We've gone to great lengths to make sure we appeal to foodies and wine connoisseurs alike," Yasinsky says. "All of our food is prepared from scratch and we're always in constant pursuit of innovation. We're always looking for that next great bite."

Added to the unique cuisine, Yasinsky says his restaurant will appeal to West Valley residents because of its great value as he does his best to offer his food and wine at an affordable price. To find out more about Vogue Bistro, visit www.voguebistro.com or call 623-544-9109. Vogue Bistro and Bar is located at Marley Park Plaza, 15411 West Waddell Road, Suite 108 in Surprise.

